JESUS PROVES TO BE HIMSELF

TODAY'S GOSPEL READING

While the disciples were gathered, Jesus appeared. He said, "Peace be with you." At first, they were frightened, thinking that He was a ghost. Jesus could see they were afraid, He told them not to be. "Look at my hands and feet. Touch me and see me, because a ghost does not have a body." He asked for food and they gave Him fish. He took it and ate it in front of them. They were amazed. He spoke of the scriptures, so they may be reminded and understand better. He said, "It is written that the Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for all the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem, You are witnesses of these things, This is the Truth. Peace be with you."

Think About it: When Jesus says "This is the truth. Peace be with you." Does it remind you of anything?

After we read the gospel during mass the priest says this, because we have just read from the witnesses of the truth: the disciples. And the truth that Jesus speaks of in today's reading is that:

1. He is the messiah
2. He died for our sins
3. He is resurrected and alive
4. Because of that, we are forgiven
5. And the disciples are witnesses to this

Luke 24: 36-48

The disciples were afraid when Jesus first appeared to them after He died. They thought he might be a ghost. Jesus had to prove he was real.

Was there ever a time you had to explain who you were to somebody? Sometimes we have to tell others who our parents are so they can understand who we are. Can you match these animals to their parents?

Happy Mother's Day!

Saints Who Were Mothers

Today is Mother's Day and in honor of this beautiful celebration, here is a list of mother's who went on to become saints. Some even had children who became saints, as well!

SAINT ANNE

Saint Anne was the mother of Mary and grandmother of Jesus. She loved being a mother to Mary and teaching her about God and his love.

SAINT ZELIE

Saint Zelie Martin had nine children, but only five daughters would survive. She instilled the love of God in her family so much so, that all of her daughters became nuns. One became a saint, Saint Therese Little Flower.

MARY Mother of God Queen of Mothers

Mary is considered the Queen of all Mothers. She is the mother of Jesus. She lived her life solely for God and raised Jesus with so much love and care. Jesus loves her dearly. He even performed His first miracle, because she asked Him to. For this reason, when we pray to Mary to take our prayers to her beloved Son, who loved to hear from us, it is the greatest intercession.

SAINT GIANNA

Saint Giana enjoyed nothing more than being a mother and a children's doctor. She was pregnant with her fourth child when she became sick. To her, her child's life was more important than her own, so she refused treatment. She passed shortly after giving birth.

SAINT MONICA

Saint Monica loved her son Augustine with her whole heart, thanking God for him everyday. He did not have the faith she did, which hurt her very much. Every day she prayed for his conversion. Augustine was not only strong in faith, he became a saint himself!

SAINT RITA

Saint Rita had always wanted to be a nun. She enjoyed being a mother to her two sons, but tragedy would make her lose all she had, including her family. Yet, she still loved and served God to the very end, eventually becoming a nun.
